Bruce Chandler opened the meeting by saying that the main purpose of this meeting is to appoint a new Township Supervisor with the resignation of Leigh Gilbert. He said we received one written resume as the advertisement in the Tri-County Independent requested. He said we also received another resume that was late from Mr. Stephen Prall and we received a phone call that was late from Andy Weist. Bruce Chandler said that Robert Boogertman did submit a proper resume to the township.

Bruce Chandler made a motion to appoint Robert Boogertman as the Township Supervisor to fill two years of Leigh Gilbert's term. He said at the end of two years Mr. Boogertman will have to run if he is still interested in being a Supervisor. Jim Martin added that bringing Mr. Boogertman on board will certainly help us just from a perspective of his experience and history in the township and also with his work throughout the community. Jim Martin said that he brings construction and road maintenance experience. He added that Mr. Boogertman is currently working on the ambulance service situation. Jim Martin seconded the motion. Bruce Chandler added that Robert Boogertman was the Fire Chief for 16 years at Lakeville Fire Co. The motion carried 2-0.
